THE KITE THAT WENT TO THE MOON

BY EVELYN SHARP

PART 1

This story is about Jerry, a seven-year-old boy and his friend Chubby. They live in a small village.

One day Jerry made a very big kite. His friend Chubby painted a big round moon and some stars on it. Jerry was very proud because his kite was the biggest kite in the village.

All the children wanted to touch his kite, but Jerry didn't want that. He shouted, "My kite is flying to the moon!"

Jerry was very excited. He wanted to fly the kite, but it didn't fly.

The children laughed at him. One boy shouted, "Your kite doesn't fly! Take it home, Jerry, and make it smaller!"

Jerry started crying. It was a terrible day for him. He wanted to see Chubby and talk to her.

Jerry: Hello, Chubby. What are you doing?

Chubby: I am trying to do my Math homework, but I cannot do it, Jerry.

It is very difficult for me. I don't know how many times seven goes into sixty three.

Jerry: Oh, Chubby! Don't be sad. Try again!

Chubby: What's wrong with you, Jerry? You look very sad.

Jerry: I can't fly my kite. The children laughed at me.

Chubby: Oh, dear! Why didn't it fly? Help me find the answer for this problem, and then we can try to fly your kite together.

Jerry: Oh, Chubby. I am afraid I don't know the answer. Now I want to go home. Goodbye!

Jerry's house was at the end of the village. He needed to walk a lot. On his way home, he was tired and wanted to rest. There was a raven in the tree.

Jerry: Good day, raven! I know ravens know a lot. I cannot fly my kite.

Do you know why?

Raven: Caw, caw! Nine times, Jerry, nine times! Caw, caw!

The raven repeated it many times. Jerry became confused. "What did the raven mean by nine times?"

Then Jerry started a conversation with a sheep.

Jerry: Do you know why I can't fly my kite?

Sheep: Baa, baa! Nine times, Jerry, nine times! Baa, baa!

Jerry was surprised to hear the same answer. He started to talk to himself. "What does it mean? What a strange day! What a strange answer!"

He repeated the last sentence twice and then he continued to walk home. Jerry walked for 15 minutes and then stopped. There was an ant. Jerry asked the ant, "Do you know why I cannot fly my kite?"

THE KITE THAT WENT TO THE MOON BY EVELYN SHARP

PART 2

The kite disappeared
you cannot see it/you cannot find it.

The moon appeared you can see it in the sky.

Ant:

Buz-z-z! Nine times, Jerry, nine times!

Jerry:

Oh, go away! What do you all mean by nine times?

Suddenly, Jerry said, "Of course, it's nine times! Why didn't I understand that before?"

Then he went back to Chubby's house. "It goes nine times, Chubby," he said, "Now help me fly this kite."

Chubby was very happy to finish her task.

Chubby:

Where are we going, Jerry?

Jerry:

My kite doesn't fly and we need to learn why.

They walked for some minutes.

Chubby:

How can we learn that?

Jerry:

We can ask people on our way. But it is getting darker and there are no people here. I thought the world was full of people. Jerry was very sad.

Chubby:

I'm hungry. Can't we go home and start again tomorrow?

Jerry:

I am afraid I don't know the way home. Wait here. I can get you some food.

Jerry was not sure, but he hoped to see a house. He walked a bit and suddenly saw a little old man with a big bag on his shoulder.

The little man saw Jerry and said, "Well, my little friend, what do you want out of my bag?"

Jerry: What do you have in your bag?

The man: I have a lot of things in my bag. I can make you happy or sad, rich or poor, clever or stupid. I can give you a toy. This toy can change into a different toy. I can give you a book. This book can tell you stories. I can give you a pair of shoes. These shoes can make a young man from a child. Now, it's time to choose, but remember, I can give you only one thing out of my bag. Jerry did not even think for a second and asked, "Do you have any food in your bag for a hungry little girl?"

The little old man smiled, gave a small cake to Jerry and disappeared. Jerry took the cake to Chubby.

"What a beautiful cake!" she said. "It tastes like strawberry jam and all the things I like. And see! I eat it, but it comes again. I can never finish it. Take some, Jerry."

Jerry also ate the cake and liked the taste of it.

Jerry: Now let's continue our journey.

He looked around for the kite, but it was not there.

Chubby: Oh, dear! I didn't sleep. How can it disappear?

"Sure! You didn't!" cried a voice behind the trees, "But you weren't careful. The moon appeared in the sky and your kite disappeared."

Hi! My name is Amir. I want to tell you about one unusual day in Bali, an island in Indonesia.

accident something that happens by chance island 🛶 a small land surrounded by water

Two years ago, I was on holiday with my family in Bali.

One day we woke up very early and decided to have a boat ride in the river. It was our first boat ride and we all were excited. The weather was sunny and hot, and we enjoyed riding the boat under the trees and listening to the songs of birds. We could hear a strange noise and it came from the forest next to the river.

My father said there were many monkeys in the forest and they made a lot of noise.

I was hungry and wanted to eat a sandwich. Suddenly, a monkey jumped onto our boat. My little sister was scared, but I wasn't.

I took the camera and wanted to take the monkey's photo, but I couldn't. The monkey took the camera and disappeared.

We were very sad because there were a lot of family photos on that camera.

We came back to the hotel. I went to my room and slept for two hours.

After two hours, I woke up and went to have dinner in the hotel restaurant. Suddenly, Mr Stark entered the restaurant with our camera in his hand. He found the camera, saw our photos on it and brought it to us. We were happy to have our camera back!

THE KITE THAT WENT TO THE MOON BY EVELYN SHARP PART 3

Of course, only a wymp could appear like that. The children were not surprised to see the wymp. They asked, "Where is our kite? Do you know?" The wymp showed the sky and said, "Look up there and see." The children shouted, "Oh, our kite is flying to the moon!"

Jerry: But why couldn't I fly it to the moon this afternoon?

The wymp: Because there wasn't a moon to fly it to. Now there is a moon and your kite is flying to it. Why did you paint the moon on the kite?

Chubby: Well, it is easy to draw it.

The wymp: But the sun is better than the moon.

Chubby: Oh, but I have only three paints and an old brush and you can't paint the sun with only three paints. You need a lot of colours to make it shine.

The wymp: Shine? Why? You can draw the other side of the sun. That side of the sun doesn't shine. It is in Wypmland.

Chubby: But I don't know about Wypmland.

The wymp: I can take you there now.

Chubby: But I want to go to the moon. Can you please take me to the moon?

The wymp: Oh, well, it is good you did not want to go to Wympland because we can go there only tomorrow morning. The sun goes down, so the back of it also disappears. It is sad, but Wympland disappears every night.

Chubby: Oh, but it doesn't disappear really. The sun is shining in a different place at the moment, and only we can't see it.

The wymp: Don't believe it! Who said it didn't disappear, eh? Did you go there?

Chubby: N-no, but –

The wymp: It doesn't shine, then.

Jerry: Do the wymps disappear every night, too?

The wymp: Of course, they do. Don't you?

Jerry: I think we only sleep.

The wymp: Ah, you do that, first. Then you disappear.

Chubby: No, we don't. We can't have dreams then.

"You have dreams because you disappear," laughed the wymp. "Look, here is our comet. Jump in."

The children and the wymp climbed on the comet and flew to the moon.

Chubby: I feel like I am inside a great fire, but it isn't hot. When can we get to the moon?

The wymp: We are in the moon now!

Chubby: But where are the eyes, the nose and the mouth?

The wymp shook his head and said, "I don't know."

Jerry only wanted to find his kite, so he asked, "Do you think we can find it soon?"

The wymp didn't answer. Suddenly, something touched the comet.

THE KITE THAT WENT TO THE MOON BY EVELYN SHARP

PART 4

It was Jerry's kite.

"Why don't you look where you are going?" asked the kite.

Jerry did not know what to say. The comet got angry and wanted to fight with Jerry's kite.

Suddenly, a strange voice said, "You can't do it in my country."

"Hello!" said the wymp, "I didn't think to see that. Good-bye, children, I'm leaving you!" And the wymp disappeared.

At the same time, a tall, white and beautiful thing came out of the moon. It was all in light. It was a white witch woman.

"I am the Lady of the Moon," she said. "I don't speak much, but I smile a lot. With my smile, the world becomes beautiful, but my smile takes the colour away from the flowers and heat from the sunshine."

She looked around and saw Jerry's kite. "What is it doing in my country?" she asked.

The biggest kite in the village was frightened and didn't know what to say.

Jerry: It is my kite. I made it and it took six half-holidays.

Chubby painted the moon and the stars on it.

Chubby: I am afraid the moon is not like the moon, but it was the best I could do with three paints and an old brush. The stars are right.

The Lady of the Moon smiled. "Stars are not important! The moon is more important! And who helped you come into my country?"

Jerry: The wymp helped us. She was here a minute ago.

The Lady of the Moon: Wymps know much about me. I can freeze their smile and they don't like that. I can freeze you, too.

Now be quick and go back home.

Jerry: Can I take my kite back with me, please?

Kite: But I don't want to go back. Girls and boys laughed

Story Time

THE ELVES AND THE SHOEMAKER BY THE BROTHERS GRIMM

Once upon a time there lived a shoemaker. He became very poor and couldn't buy leather any more. He had material for one pair of shoes only. So in the evening, he cut the leather into the shape of the shoes and left his work on the table. He planned to continue in the morning. In the morning, he saw a pair of shoes on his table. He was shocked and did not know what happened. He took the shoes in his hands. They were very beautiful.

Later that day, a woman came into the shop and liked the shoes. She paid more than the usual price. Now the shoemaker had enough money to buy leather for two pairs of shoes.

That night, he cut out the leather and, in the morning, he again saw 2 pairs of beautiful shoes on the table. The shoemaker sold all of them. He soon had enough money to buy leather for four pairs of shoes.

The same thing happened. He again found very beautiful four pairs of shoes in the morning. It happened every day in the same way – he cut leather in the evening and shoes were ready in the morning. Soon he became rich.

One evening, he said to his wife, "Let's wait and see who is making shoes?" The woman liked the idea. They hid themselves and waited.

At midnight, two little elves came into the room. They had very old clothes on. They were very quick and tidy. They finished their job and ran away quickly.

The next morning the woman said, "The little men helped us and we became rich. We need to thank them. They don't have good clothes on. I want to make them little clothes. You can help, too. Make two little pairs of shoes for them."

The man agreed.

A SERVICE AND A

The shoemaker and his wife prepared their presents. They decided to give their presents to the little men, so the shoemaker didn't put any leather on the table that night. They put their presents on the table and then hid themselves and waited for the little men.

At midnight, they came in and wanted to start making shoes, but they did not find any leather. First, they were confused and then they saw the clothes and became very happy. They dressed very quickly, put the pretty clothes on and sang.

"Now we are boys so fine to see,

Why should we longer shoemakers be?"

They danced and sang their songs and then left the room. From that time on, they didn't come any more, but the shoemaker lived a happy life.

Hi! My name is Abiona. I am seven years old. I live in Kenya, Africa. I wake up very early every day. Yesterday morning, I woke up at 5 o'clock. It was dark outside, but I needed to go. I could hear my friends' voices. We were all ready to walk for 2 hours up to the mountains. We didn't do it for fun. We needed to get water and it was up in the mountains.

It was easy to walk with an empty bucket. I felt sleepy, first. After some minutes, I heard scary noises. There dream → want something very much sleepy - in need of sleep thirsty - in need of water were some animals around us. The noise woke me up. I was very scared, so I walked quickly. I looked up, but I couldn't see the sun. Finally, we saw the big tree. We love this tree because the lake is next to it. We all ran to get water. The lake water was dirty, but we were happy. I felt thirsty. We all drank water together. That dirty water tasted very delicious at that moment. My friends and I usually have stomach problems because the water is not clean. People in my village can't find clean water. We drink this dirty water or no water at all.

The trip became hard with my full bucket. It was very heavy and it hurt my head. I thought about my family. They needed water. We all needed water. I looked up to see the sun. It was hard to move my head with my heavy bucket. I could feel the sun. I could feel it on my face. I walked and dreamed. I dreamed I could drink clean water one day.

THE GIVING TREE BY SHEL SILVERSTEIN

Once there was a tree. Every day a little boy came to pick up its leaves. He played the king of the forest. He climbed up the tree and swang. He also loved eating its apples. The boy and the tree loved playing together. Very often he sat under the tree. He loved the tree very much. The tree was very happy.

The time passed. The little boy grew older. He didn't come to the tree every day. The tree was often alone. Then one day the boy came.

The tree said, "Come, boy, climb up and swing. Eat my apples, play and be happy."

"I am too old to climb and play," said the boy. "I want to buy things and have fun. I need money. Can you give me money?"

"I'm sorry," said the tree. "I have no money. I have only leaves and apples. Take my apples and sell them. Then you will have money and you will be happy."

So, the boy gathered the apples. He took them and left the tree. The tree was happy.

The boy didn't come for a long time and the tree was sad. Then one day the boy came back. The tree was very happy and said, "Come, boy, climb up and swing." "I am very busy. I cannot climb trees now," said the boy. "I want a house to keep me warm. I want to have a family, so I need a house. Can you give me a house?"

"I have no house," said the tree. "The forest is my house, but you can cut my branches and build a house. Then you will be happy."

So, the boy cut the branches of the tree and took them. The tree was happy. The tree didn't see the boy for a very long time.

One day the boy came back and the tree was very happy and said quietly, "Come, boy, climb up and swing."

"I am too sad and old to play," said the boy. "I want a boat to take me far away. Can you give me a boat?"

"Cut my branches off and make a boat," said the tree. "Then you can sail away and be happy."

So, the boy cut the tree, made a boat and sailed away. The tree was not as happy as it was before.

After a long time, the boy came back again.

The state of the s

"I am sorry, boy," said the tree. "I don't have anything to give you."

Not many people know about this beautiful place. I think it is the most unusual place in the world. My dream is to see it one day. There are about 365 small pools of water in this lake in summer. Imagine! Each pool has a different colour. You can see yellow, orange, green, purple and blue pools. It is really nice! People cannot walk in the lake area. They can only watch this beautiful lake from a distance. Late July is the best time to visit it.

Nancy

Do you like walking in the forest? What about walking in the forest with a lot of giant trees? The place I would like to see one day is full of giant and old trees. The tallest tree in the world is also there. It's called Hyperion and it is 115.7 m tall. Most trees in this park are very old. They are about 2000 years old. I think it is the best place for playing Hide and seek with friends.

Story Time

MISS RUMPHIUS BY BARBARA COONEY

Once upon a time, there was a little girl called Alice. She lived in a city by the sea with her grandfather. He was an artist and worked in the shop near the house. Like her grandfather, Alice loved painting pictures. In the evenings, she listened to her grandfather's stories of faraway places. Alice often said, "In the future, I will also go to faraway places and live near the sea." "That is all very well, little Alice," said her grandfather, "but there is a third thing you should do." "What is that?" asked Alice. "You should do something to make the world more beautiful," said her grandfather. "All right," said Alice. Years passed and Alice grew up. She decided to do the three things. She left home and went to live in another city far from the sea. There she worked in a library. Some of the books told her about faraway places. People called her Miss Rumphius now.

So, Miss Rumphius went to an island and met new people there. She walked on long beaches and picked up beautiful flowers. She went through jungles and across deserts. And everywhere she made many friends. Finally, she came to the Land of the Lotus-Eaters, and there she fell and hurt her back. She said to herself, "It is time to find my place by the sea."

Now she had a new house with a sea view. She started a little garden around her house and planted flower seeds. Miss Rumphius was happy. "But there is still one more thing I should do," she said. "I should do something to make the world more beautiful." But what? "The world already is nice," she thought.

Next spring Miss Rumphius was not very well. Her back hurt her and she stayed in bed most of the time. She could see flowers in her garden from her bedroom window: blue, purple and pink. "Lupines," said Miss Rumphius, "I love lupines very much." She wanted to plant more seeds that summer, but she couldn't.

Next spring, Miss Rumphius was better. One afternoon, she went up the hill. "I don't believe my eyes!" she cried. There were lupines on the other side of the hill! "It was the wind," she said. "The wind brought the seeds from my garden here! And the birds helped!" She bought a lot of flower seeds. All that summer, Miss Rumphius walked and threw lupine seeds along the roads.

STATE OF THE PARTY OF THE PARTY

Next spring there were lupines everywhere. Miss Rumphius did the third – the most difficult thing of all!

Miss Rumphius is very old now. Her hair is very white. Every year there are more and more lupines. Now people call her Lupine Lady. Sometimes children stand outside her house and want to see the old, old lady. They think she is the oldest woman in the world. She often tells them stories about faraway places.

Fuad: Right. It's true.

Adil: You can play the piano. You said you learned it in London. It is also true.

Fuad: Well done! One more true guess. Adil: You moved to Baku in December in 2016. I remember that day.

Fuad: Wow... You know a lot about me. Adil: But I don't know anything about your award.

Fuad: Hmm. Do you think it is the wrong sentence?

Adil: I am not sure. Wait, wait. You have 3 brothers and a sister. Your grandparents also live with you. You didn't grow up in a small family. That is the wrong sentence.

Fuad: Bravo, Adil. Yes, you are right. I grew up in a big family.

Adil: Now tell me more about your award.

Fuad: Well. That was 2 years ago.

On holidays I often travel with my family. Last month I visited Azerbaijan. I met many wonderful people there.

In my free time, I enjoy playing the flute and the guitar. I have a goal. I want to become a successful scientist in the future.

Hi, everyone. I am Galib. Today I am back to my hometown Shusha. 28 years ago, the war started and I left Shusha with my family. We came to Baku. In the daytime, I studied medicine at university. In the evenings, I worked as a waiter in a restaurant. It was really hard, but I did my best. In 2000, I became a doctor. In 2020, the war started again. I waited for the good news for 44 days. On November 8, President Ilham Aliyev shared the good news on TV. That was the best day of my life.

This weekend was just great. On Saturday, I went on a field trip to Stratford Butterfly Farm with my class. Our Biology teacher Mrs Olivia planned this trip for us a month ago, but she had a bad headache on Saturday, so she couldn't go with us. Luckily, our Geography teacher Mr Kevin was free and he took us there.

The farm was very beautiful with a lot of flowers, trees and plants. We saw a lot of different butterflies there. Mr Kevin told us about butterflies. We learned a lot about them.

On the farm, there was a big pond. I was very surprised to see colorful fish there. We watched them with great interest. There were nice gardens for picnics on the farm. We had our lunch there. Then we hired a boat and had a long boat trip on the river Avon. Only 12 people could sit in one boat. We were 22, so we hired 2 boats. It was interesting, because we could see beautiful swans in the water. I took their photos. They were very cute. We got very tired at the end of the trip. Some children slept on the bus. I took their photos and showed them later. We had a lot of fun.

Matt lives in Australia. For his 13th birthday, he wanted to get a dog as a present. Two days before his birthday, he visited an alpaca farm with his family. He saw Chewy there – the smallest alpaca on the farm. Matt liked Chewy very much, so his parents decided to buy him for Matt. It was the best birthday present for Matt.

Now Chewy lives in the back garden and has his own Instagram account. Matt's family also has a pet rabbit – Nora and Chewy likes spending time with her. He also loves trips to the beach and eniovs watching the ocean.

People in Matt's town know Chewy and they can often see him with Matt. Matt often skateboards and Chewy walks near him.

It is easier to look after Chewy than a dog. The family doesn't buy any food for Chewy. Chewy eats the grass in the garden.

There is one thing Matt doesn't like about Chewy. Chewy spits at people he doesn't know.

A lot of students in our country are overweight. They eat unhealthy food, spend all day in front of TV, or play computer games. At schools, they have inactive lives and become tired. I wanted to change this, so 2 years ago, I started the "Active School" project.

First, I planned a full programme. Then I found some people to help me. After that, I visited some schools and talked to the directors. They didn't want to join the project. Only one school director agreed to join us.

We chose 5 classes at that school and worked with them for 3 months. In just 3 months, everybody in the class became very active, healthy and strong. They also became more interested in their studies. The parents, teachers, students and the director were very happy with the result

One TV channel recorded a video about our project. After that, all schools in the city joined our project one by one.

There were 15 people in our team at the beginning, but now we have 150. Everybody is working with great pleasure. Now the students in our city have healthier and happier lives.

Hi! I am Farah. I was born in Malaysia, but my family is from Indonesia. We live in Jakarta, Indonesia. I love my country and I think a lot about its future. People use a lot of plastic here – 24,500 tons of plastic every day! This makes the water of the sea very dirty and kills sea animals. Countries like China, Indonesia and the Philippines throw most plastic to the oceans. I feel sad to see my country on this list. I talked to my classmates about this. We made posters and took photos in the landfill full of plastic. Last week we showed these photos to other classes at our school and talked about the danger of plastic. I want to inform more people about all these. We are also planning to talk to our neighbours. They use a lot of plastic bags every day. I want to ask them to use cloth bags and help the planet.

Winter is my favourite season. I love cold and snowy weather very much. I have a dream! One day I want to go to the Ice Hotel in Canada. The hotel is called Ice Hotel because it's made of ice and snow. The hotel is only open in winter months. It has 32 rooms and 80 people can stay there for a night. It costs about $150 to stay there a day. The hotel has a movie theater, an art gallery and a church. All the furniture, plates and glasses in the rooms are made of ice.

The hotel is very popular all over the world and many adventurous tourists visit the hotel every year. The hotel is always -2 and -5 C, so all the visitors should keep their winter coats on. The hotel rooms are very cold, but sleeping is not a problem for visitors. They get a special sleeping bag and warm blankets. I hope one day I will stay in this unusual hotel.
